^{1/} Totals may not equal sum of parts due to rounding. Data are not available for older age groups prior to 1994.

^{2/} Only a few States grant full driving privileges to teens under age 16, and FHWA'S definition has changed over time. Starting in 1990, States were asked to report the only number of teens under 16 years old with full driving privileges. In 2006, to reflect growing use of Graduated License Programs, States were asked to include provisional licenses. Starting in 2012, States were asked to excluded learner permits.
